To know

✓ How to get there

By Car: Follow the A1 highway that connects Porto to Lisbon

By Train: The main train stations are Estação do Oriente or Estação de Santa Apolónia

By Air: Humberto Delgado Airport

✓ Features of the trip

The surf camp is open to travelers of all ages and fitness levels. You can participate either independently or in a group, with continuous support from local experts. During group vacations, you'll have the chance to meet people from all over the world, each with their own unique habits and backgrounds. To take part in the surf lessons, it is necessary to know how to swim, but the activities are designed for anyone who wants to learn or improve their technique. The lessons are tailored according to each participant's skill level, ensuring a personalized experience. Respect the space of others and enjoy the fun. The lessons are taught by qualified instructors, specifically chosen to provide safe guidance and a unique experience.

✓ General travel information

Remember to bring a valid passport or ID card, with an expiration date at least 6 months after the departure date. Please notify us of any food intolerances when booking; we will do our best to accommodate them, but we cannot guarantee it. Local accommodation taxes must be paid on-site. We recommend bringing comfortable clothing, swimwear, a towel, sunscreen, and a hat to protect yourself from the sun. Don't forget toiletries, medications, and necessary documents. If you have your own surfboard or wetsuit, feel free to bring them; otherwise, we provide all the equipment. Surfing is possible year-round in Portugal: in the summer, the waves are smaller and the water is warmer, making it ideal for beginners, while in the winter, the waves are bigger and better suited for intermediate and advanced surfers. Each group will be directed to the best surf conditions based on their abilities.
