Itinerary

Travel Notes

Montallegro

The trek starts in Chiavari along the seaside promenade and historic paved streets, gradually ascending through Mediterranean scrub and oak forests to reach the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Grace. The route continues towards Monte Telegrafo and Sant'Andrea di Rovereto, passing the Madonnetta Chapel and reaching Monte Anchetta, with opportunities for panoramic stops. After a short descent and the climb to Monte Castello, the stage ends at the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Montallegro, where overnight accommodation is provided.

Duration:

Accommodation: Montallegro

Sant'Andrea di Foggia

After breakfast in Montallegro, the high-mountain trek begins, passing the Passo della Crocetta, Monte Pegge, and Monte Manico del Lume, the highest peak in the Gulf of Tigullio. This challenging route, suitable for experienced mountain hikers, offers spectacular views while crossing ridges and forests. Following the descent from Monte Manico del Lume, the trail reaches the historic village of Chignero and finally the hamlet of Sant'Andrea di Foggia, where overnight accommodation is provided.

Accommodation: Sant'Andrea di Foggia

San Lorenzo della Costa

The stage starts from Sant'Andrea di Foggia and descends toward Rapallo, following the road to Santa Maria del Campo and the ancient Strada di Bana along the stream of the same name. The trail then climbs to Ruta di Camogli, home to the historic Church of San Michele Arcangelo and a refreshment point. The route continues through the Portofino Park, crossing ridges, trails, and forests, until reaching San Lorenzo della Costa, where overnight accommodation is provided.

Accommodation: San Lorenzo della Costa

Santa Margherita Ligure

After breakfast at Monte di Portofino, the stage begins with a climb along the trails of the Park, reaching the scenic viewpoint of Pietre Strette. The descent leads to the historic village of San Fruttuoso di Camogli, where walkers can admire the Abbey, the Watchtower, and the Cristo degli Abissi. From there, a boat transfer takes visitors to Portofino, with a visit to the Piazzetta, Castello Brown, and the Church of San Giorgio. The route continues on flat terrain along the coastal road through Paraggi, arriving at Santa Margherita Ligure for overnight accommodation.
