Tra Vinh

The day begins with a van transfer to a local café in the Mekong Delta, where we will find our bikes ready to go. Today's route mainly takes us under the shade of coconut palms, offering protection from the hot Mekong sun. We will cycle across numerous bridges over small canals, admiring the lush vegetation and the characteristic agricultural landscapes of the area. Along the way, we will stop at a factory that produces coconut-derived products to learn about local traditions. We'll take a break for lunch before continuing our journey. In the afternoon, the landscape changes: the coconut fields give way to picturesque homes and villages in the delta. The route continues along flat, paved roads, with some narrower sections through the coconut plantations, offering an interesting challenge. Upon arrival in Tra Vinh City, we'll have time to relax before enjoying dinner. Overnight stay in a local accommodation.

Can Tho

After breakfast, we will begin our day with a short ride to Ba Om Pond, a charming 800-year-old Khmer architectural wonder, famous for its seasonal lotus flowers. We will continue our journey through fertile plains, surrounded by rice fields and canals, immersed in one of the most productive areas of Vietnam. This region is known as the second largest rice producer in the country. Along the way, we will stop for lunch before resuming our adventure. In the afternoon, we will head to Can Tho city with a van transfer. Once there, you will have time to explore the city, enjoy the panoramic views from rooftop restaurants, and experience the vibrant atmosphere of the local night markets. The evening is free for dinner at your leisure, and overnight accommodation will be provided.

Long Xuyen

After breakfast, the day will be divided into two parts: the morning on the water and the afternoon on land. Starting from Can Tho, we will board a boat to head towards the famous Cai Rang floating market. During the tour, we will have time to explore the market and shop with local vendors. Once the boat tour is finished, we will get on our bikes and cycle along the river on quiet, paved roads, surrounded by fruit gardens lining the countryside paths. As we continue, the shaded trails will give way to vast rice fields, offering us a beautiful and serene view. This stretch will allow us to immerse ourselves in the rural landscape, often without encountering anyone for kilometers, creating an atmosphere of calm and reflection. The last stop of the day will be at the Bang Lang Stork Sanctuary. We will take a break for lunch before continuing our journey. In the afternoon, we will head towards Long Xuyen, where we will have time to explore the area and relax. The day will conclude with dinner and an overnight stay at the hotel.

Chau Doc

After a delicious local breakfast, we will transfer by private shuttle to the historic region that was recognized as the Southern Kingdom of Vietnam 2000 years ago. We will visit a local museum to learn more about the history of this fascinating area. Next, we will begin our journey to the Tra Su Nature Reserve and Bird Sanctuary. Along the way, we will pass through farmland that is frequently flooded, so much of the route will be on raised, reinforced platforms, allowing us to admire the surrounding landscape. We will arrive at Tra Su in the early afternoon, when most of the tourists will have already left. This will give us the opportunity to walk along a floating bridge, surrounded by brightly colored algae, and take a guided boat tour through the peaceful, shaded canals of the reserve. After this relaxing experience, it will be time for lunch. Then, we will get back on our bikes to continue toward Chau Doc. Alternatively, an air-conditioned van will be available for transfer, in case you prefer to end the day in comfort. The evening will conclude with dinner and overnight accommodation.

After lunch, you'll also have the chance to visit a local pagoda and a school.
